Regardez Moi made a clean sweep of all the top dressage classes at the recent Australian National Dressage Championships in October in Sydney. He won the Intermediare II, he won the Grand Prix CDI-W, he won the Grand Prix Free-style and he won the Grand Prix Special. This is possibly the first time in Australian history that all four top classes have been won by the same horse.

Regardez Moi has now won some 22 Grand Prix competitions.

Regardez Moi represented Australia at the World Cup Finals in the USA in 2009

Regardez Moi is by the Grand Prix super sire Rubinstein.

Regardez Moi carries the Grand Prix bloodlines through his dam of Consul, Donnerhall and Angelo.
